

Introducing a new violence prevention program for teen girls, developed and delivered by a special partnership of three local agencies:

GIRLS TAKING ACTION AGAINST VIOLENCE

Kingston area teen girls from 12 to 14 are invited to register for our second round of this dynamic project-oriented program where participants will benefit from:

- ◆ Increased Self-Esteem
- ◆ Enhanced Leadership Skills
- ◆ Positive Female Support System
- ◆ An ability to recognize and avoid potentially violent situations

This program round will begin on Thursday, January 12, 2012 and will take place in a safe location near downtown Kingston. Transportation is provided. For more information or to register, please contact Michelle Cunningham, Child and Youth Community Counsellor, Kingston Interval House, (613) 542-8115 extension 2, or by email to mich1@kingston.net.

